

Bringing Back the Bush: Western Sydney Parklands

Did you know that you live within the critically endangered Cumberland Plain Woodland? Want to help us save it? Come along with us as we take a morning stroll, listen to the birdcalls and get busy for the bush!

Where: Plough and Harrow East Reserve

When: 1st and 3rd Sunday and most Thursdays every month

What: Our team will be planting native trees, shrubs and grasses, clearing weeds and having fun so come along for a great opportunity to meet new people, learn how to identify and grow the unique plants and trees that are needed to help our wildlife flourish in Western Sydney.

Meet: 9am outside Amoretti's Café, near the car park at Plough and Harrow EAST off Elizabeth Drive, Abbotsbury or you can call the office to arrange a pick-up from Blacktown station.

Essentials: You must wear sturdy boots, long pants, a long-sleeved shirt and a hat. Bring plenty of water and a good lunch.

Please book online as places are limited!
